

The annual Pasco Pathways school choice expos will take place on November 10th at Cypress Creek High School and November 17th at Hudson High School. Both events are from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. The expos are intended to inform families about the upcoming school choice application window and highlight the innovative programs available in Pasco County.

To see all the schools attending, register for a session, or access our frequently asked questions, go to www.pascoschools.org/expo.